WHAT IS GOOD STANDING?

GOOD STANDING

Good standing simply means that you can...

attend and vote at general meetings run for elected positions vote in those elections participate as a delegate of the local union fully participate in the activities of the local and national union or receive any other perks of being part of the union

WHAT IF I DON'T SIGN THE FORM?

That's ok.

Members who are not in good standing are considered Rand Employees, which means they pay dues
but cannot fully participate in the activities of the Union.

Rand members have the right to be represented by the union
for violations of the collective agreement.
